

Safe Home Security

Home Safety Checklist

Don't be a statistic! Use our checklist as a guide to make your home safer!

Recent Crime & Fire Stats:

- 80% plus of break-ins occur through ground level doors & windows.
- A burglary occurs every 14.6 seconds.
- Nearly 2 out of 3 burglaries occur in homes.
- Average dollar loss per burglary is $1,725.
- Fire departments in the U.S. are alerted every 20 seconds.
- Almost 80% of structural fires occur in homes.

Your Home's Interior

- Doors are constructed of solid wood or metal. —
- Doorframes are solid to prevent forcing or spreading. —
- Doors are secured by deadbolt locks. —
- All windows have adequate locks in operating condition. —
- Windows are free of concealing structures and shrubs. —
- Second story windows are secure, especially those opening onto garage roofs or porches. —
- Ladders and trestles are not accessible. —
- Basement doors and windows are secure. —
- Garage doors and windows are secure. —
- Lighting comes on in evening; timers or photocells used. —

Your Home's Exterior

- Shrubs and bushes are cut back or trimmed to prevent an intruder from hiding. —
- There are no dark spots around the house that would conceal an intruder. —
- Outside doors are adequately lighted to reveal visitors. —
- Floodlights are appropriately used to illuminate driveways, backyards, etc. —
- House numbers are clearly visible from the street for identification purposes. —
- Valuables like lawn mowers, bikes, grills are hidden from view and adequately protected by locks. —
- Outdoor lights are on timers to illuminate when you are away. —

If You Have An Alarm...

- Equipment is up-to-date and U.L. approved. —
- Monitoring center is U.L. approved. —
- Security system is cleaned and tested once per year. —
- Ground level is properly protected: all doors have sensors, windows have sensors or protected by motion detectors. —
- Photoelectric smoke detectors installed on all levels of home....all sleeping areas protected! —
- Carbon monoxide detector installed in home —

Make Your Home a Safe Home!

Call Today for Your FREE Home Security Analysis!
Absolutely No Obligation!

800-833-3211